

Thank you for nominating a candidate for the Mayville State University Athletic Coaches Hall of Fame. After we have received your completed nomination form, we will request additional information from the nominee. Nominees who have completed and returned the nominee data sheet and returned it to the MSU Foundation prior to June 1 of any given year will be considered for induction in that same year.

Nominee Qualifications

The nominee must have graduated from Mayville State ten or more years prior to induction.

The records of the nominee considered should be so outstanding that there would be little question as to the qualifications necessary for induction.

Consideration will be given for personal conduct in sports and personal contributions to the ideal of sports.

The Hall of Fame Committee has the authority to make exceptions for extraordinary cases for individuals not meeting the criteria.
