Distance Learning Complaint Process for Out of State Students

Mayville State University is committed to resolving student grievances, complaints and concerns in an expeditious and fair manner. Students residing outside North Dakota while attending Mayville State University who want to resolve a grievance should follow the student complaint processes explained below.

Online and distance students with grievances, complaints, or concerns may direct concerns or questions on the student complaint process to:

Misti Wuori, Director of Extended Learning Mayville State University 330 Third Street NE Mayville, ND 58257 701.788.4631 (phone) 1.800.437.4104, ext. 34631 misti.wuori@mayvillestate.edu

If a complaint cannot be resolved at the University level, a student may contact the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA) portal agency at the North Dakota University System (NDUS). The NDUS is governed by the State Board of Higher Education and oversees Mayville State University.

SARA Portal Agency

Students residing outside North Dakota while attending Mayville State University who want to resolve a grievance should follow the internal Mayville State University student complaint processes outlined below. However, if an issue cannot be resolved internally, you may file a complaint with the SARA Portal Agency contact linked above, or with your State by referring to the list of state agencies below.

Student Concerns: Student concerns about specific issues should generally be addressed to the respective office or university employee for resolution. The following are specific processes that students should follow for prompt resolution of concerns:

A. Students who have concerns about classroom related matters (including matters related to the instructor, teaching materials, methodology, classroom environment, physical facilities, or other matters resulting from normal classroom activities) should follow the following procedure:

Discuss the situation with the instructor to see if a resolution can be reached. If the problem is still not resolved, contact the instructor's Division Chair for assistance. Situations still not resolved should be brought to the attention of Tami Such, the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

If the situation has not been resolved through this procedure, students may contact the President of the University for final resolution.

For questions on this process, please contact the Director of Extended Learning, Misti Wuori, at 701-788-4631.

Grade appeal processes are handled differently and are outlined in the Academic Catalog.

B. Students who have concerns about billings, business operations, institutional charges, etc. should contact Courtney Peterson or Lois Karlstad in the Business Office at 701-788-4758. Financial billing issues related to policy or university procedures should be directed to Steven Bensen, Interim Vice President for Administrative Affairs, at 701-788-4761.

C. Students who have concerns about financial aid awards, scholarships, or the processing of financial aid should contact Susan Cordahl, Director of Financial Aid, at 701-788-4767.

Issues related to financial aid policies or procedures should be directed to Andrew Pflipsen, Vice President for Student Affairs, at 701-788-4770.

D. Students who have concerns about their official admissions status or their academic standing should contact Heather Hoyt, Director of Admissions and Academic Records, at 701-788-4773.

Issues related to admissions and academic standing policies should be directed to Tami Such, Vice President for Academic Affairs, at 701-788-4755.

E. Students who have concerns about specific student services - such as housing, food services, academic support, career development, student health services, counseling, student programming or special services - should first contact the director or professional in charge of that program.

Concerns may also be addressed by Andrew Pflipsen, Vice President for Student Affairs, at 701-788-4770.

F. Student athletes who have questions or concerns about eligibility or athletic awards should contact the respective coach.

Issues related to institutional or NAIA policies or institutional procedures should be directed to Ryan Hall, Athletic Director, at 701-788-4706.

G. Students who have concerns about technology related issues - such as laptop issues, access to computing resources, etc. should contact the MSU Service Desk at 701-788-4723. Concerns about institutional policies and procedures related to the use of technology should be directed to Robert Frederick, Chief Information Officer, at 701-788-4794.

- I. Students, parents or alumni who have questions or concerns about alumni status, alumni information or contributions to the university should contact the MSU Foundation Office at 701-788-4867.
- J. Students who have concerns about the condition of specific facilities or grounds should first contact the manager of that building or grounds area.

Issues may also be directed to Dan Lorenz in Main Building (facilities operations) or Bob Kozojed in the Campus Center Building (custodial services).

In the event that a situation cannot be resolved through ordinary and normal procedures with the respective staff person or Vice President, students may contact the university president for a final resolution.

Mayville State University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.
