

Mayville State University

Teacher Education Symposium

March 27, 2018

Mayville State University Teacher Education Symposium
 Tuesday, March 27th, 2018

8:30-9:00 am	Registration
9:00-10:00 am Auditorium	Educating Teachers for Social Justice : Professor Chinh Duc Nguyen-Fulbright Scholar from Vietnam
10:00-10:15 am	Break
10:15-11:15 pm	ND MTSS Pre-Service Teacher Introduction : Jennifer Glasheen from the Southeast Education Cooperative
11:15-12:15 pm	Lunch TMCC students & MSU student hosts in cafeteria Faculty & speakers in 112
12:15-1:15 pm	Making Data-Based Decisions : Cheryl Hogarth from Melissa Uetz from Northern Cass School District
1:15—1:30 pm	Break
1:30 – 2:30 pm	Panel Session: Question and Answers About Special Education in the MTSS Framework Upper Valley Special Education Unit Dan Juve-Special Education Director Jami Frize-Coordinator Jessica Pankow-Coordinator Shelly Henke-Coordinator
2:30-3:30 pm	Assessment & Media Literacy : Darcy Bakkegard from PBS Teacher Community Program Participants will use tech tools that support teaching, learning and assessment
3:30 pm	Closing

Symposium Presenters

Educating Teachers for Social Justice

Chin Nguyen is a visiting scholar at the University of Washington in Seattle in the college of Education as a part of the Fulbright Core Scholar Program. He specializes in teacher training at the College of Foreign Language Studies at the University of Danang in Vietnam. His research project is titled Educating Teachers for Social Justice in U.S. Higher Education: Lessons for Vietnam.

ND MTSS Pre-Service Teacher Introduction

Jennifer Glasheen is the Director of Teaching, Learning & Assessment for the South East Education Cooperative (SEEC), one of eight regional education associations in North Dakota serving nearly one-third of the teachers and students in the state. She works with member schools on leadership development, program implementation, and professional learning and has facilitated professional development related to assessment literacy, formative assessment, and instructional strategies. She also serves on the ND Multi-Tier System of Supports (NDMTSS) Leadership Team. In addition, she has written and managed grants for RTI/MTSS, SEEC Beginning Teacher Network, Bush Foundation and Succeed 2020 grants. Jennifer's professional experiences included 9 years in her current position and 15 years in the public schools as a high school chemistry/science teacher, Dean of Students and coach. Jennifer has a BA in Secondary Education and Chemistry from Mount Marty College (SD), earned her M.Ed. in Educational Leadership in 2001 from North Dakota State University, and is ABD working toward her doctorate.

Making Data-Based Decisions

Cheryl Hoggarth formerly taught kindergarten, Title 1 and 2nd grade at Northern Cass. For the past 8 years she has been working as an Instructional Coach and Performance Strategist. In addition, she is part of both the Elementary and Secondary MTSS teams. She has a Masters of Science in Education Degree from Southwest Minnesota State University, Marshall, Minnesota.

Melissa Uetz is currently a special education strategist and lead facilitator of customized learning at Northern Cass Public School. She has a Masters in Strategic Leadership from the University of Mary and a Masters as a Special Education Strategist from UND. She is currently in the Leadership in K-12 Administration Doctoral Program through Bethel University.

Panel Session: Question and Answers About Special Education in the MTSS Framework

Dan Juve is the Special Education Director for the Upper Valley Special Education Unit.

6 years in administration

15 years as special education Casemanager

K-12+

Jami Frize is a Speech Language Pathologist with Upper Valley

4 years in administration

10 years as SLP

Pre-k-12+

Jessica Pankow

3 years in administration

Mayville State Graduate 2006

10 years special education teacher

K-12+

Masters in Education-Special Education Strategist

Shelly Henke

1 year Administration

24 year special education Casemanager

K-12

Strategist

Assessment & Media Literacy

Darcy Bakkegard is the Teacher Ambassador for Prairie Public Broadcasting in Fargo, ND where she leads professional development workshops, webinars, and 1:1 training for teachers across the state. With 10 years of experience teaching English and Theatre in public and private, rural and suburban, and international schools, she has taught every type of learner. Building from a BA in Theatre and years in educational theatre, Darcy specializes in interactive strategies for the classroom, meaningful technology integration, and how to build meaningful relationships with students. Along with a Master's Degree in Secondary English Education, Darcy is a Level 1 Certified Google Educator and EdPuzzle Certified Teacher. She has presented workshops at the National Council of Teacher of English National Convention, the International School Conference of Turkey, and the Fargo-Moorhead Metro Area Tech Camp.