Learning Experiences

Through the following teaching experiences and special projects, you will get a great deal of hands on work with your professional training as a teacher.

1. Attend class. This is a one-hour class – Please notify the professor prior to any absence.
2. Participate actively in cooperative learning activities and class discussion.

Instructional Technologies Utilized in this Course

Expectations/Protocols

Attending class and actively participating with others is a must in this course. If you are going to be gone, communicate with me as soon as possible.

Instructor/Student Communication

Please contact me whenever needed regarding attendance or general questions/concerns. Email will be the best means of communication, this will be how I will communicate if there comes a time when I will be absent from class as well. Students are accountable for all academic communications sent to their Mayville State University e-mail address.

If you email me between the hours of 7:00 am and 7:00 pm, you can expect a timely response. Any email after 7:00 pm, I will reply as soon as I see it the next morning.

Method of Evaluation/Grading

(Grades are based on total points)

1. Attendance - you are expected to be in class every day. Please notify the professor prior to your absence.
2. Active participation in cooperative learning activities and class discussions
3. You receive 10 points for being on time and active in class for the week. If you are late or not active you will lose points.
4. At the end of the course, each student will teach an activity/game to the rest of the class.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK

There are many special benefits from the activities being offered to students by the Division of HPER. Within the activities it must be understood that there are dangers that may lead to injury to students. Therefore, the purpose of this section is to make all students aware that dangers do exist and that participation is done with the understanding that risks are involved. It is to be further understood that students must share in the responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others.
