2020-21 Season

Starting off the new year, the Comets head out to Forest City, Iowa to take on the Waldorf Warriors. Mayville ended up with the 63-58 victory with player Jordan Zrust scoring 41 points! Next stop was to play Viterbo University where the ladies had a hard fought battle but ended up coming short 60-72. After this weekend, Jordan Zrust received her 3rd player of the week award. The Friday game of the following weekend against Dakota State was rescheduled but the Saturday game against the Bellevue Bruins was still on. The Comets ended up winning 59-58 in the game against Bellevue in a nail biter. On the 22nd of January, the comets took on our rival Valley City State winning 83-77 and was able to have a home crowd advantage in the win. The following day against the Dicknson State Blue Hawks, we pulled out another win 64-52. Jordan Zrust was named player of the week for the 4th time after this weekend averaging 22 points and 12 rebounds. The comets record moves to 10-2 overall and 5-1 in the conference!

“Hoops” Club

The Hoops Club continues to grow. We are up to 33 current members and have raised over $8000 additional dollars for the Women’s Basketball Program. Thanks to EVERYONE that has been involved with the leadership of the Hoops Club, and also for those who have generously joined and donated to our program. Your generosity is what allows us to recruits and retain “high level” student athletes to Mayville State. GO COMETS!!!!

2021 Signees

Mayville State Women's Basketball would like to announce another signee for the 2021 recruiting class. Baylie Norris is set to join the team next season. Baylie is from Greenway MN. Baylie is the fourth signing for the Comets for next season. Congrats Baylie!!!!

Faculty/Staff Appreciation

The Mayville State Comets took an afternoon to show their appreciation by catering a sack lunch to the faculty staff of Mayville State. The lunch was sponsored by Subway. The following evening, at our home game against Valley City, we had our Faculty/Staff Appreciation Night where we recognized all staff and faculty for all of their hard work they have been doing throughout the year.
